5. Benevolent Dunwich

Rare opportunity for a guided tour. Join us as we journey from Cleveland across Moreton Bay to another time and place. Our guide from the North Stradbroke Island Historical Museum will meet us in Dunwich and lead us on a fascinating walk around this historic township. From 1866 to 1946, Dunwich was the site of a Benevolent Asylum and we shall be taken on a journey that recaptures that period. Structural evidence of Dunwich as a convict outpost (1827-1831) will also be viewed on this tour. The tour includes spending time at the museum where morning tea awaits. We then wander through the cemetery grounds whose picturesqueness hides over 8000 unmarked graves from Dunwich's time as a Benevolent Asylum.

The tour ends up overlooking the water near the One Mile Jetty at the Little Ship Club with the opportunity to have lunch here, in time for the 1.25pm Stradbroke Flyer water taxi back to Cleveland.

When: Saturday 20 August 2016

Time: 8.30 am departing Cleveland

Meeting Location: TBA on confirmation of booking

Cost: General ticket $25.00; BLHN/NSIHM Individual member $16.50 (does not include water taxi fares or lunch)

OPTION 2 - General ticket $37.00; BLHN/NSIHM Individual member $28.50 (includes 2 x water taxi fares; does not include lunch)
