Participants

This is an introductory workshop and would suit people who are commencing an oral history project. It is appropriate for anyone with an interest in oral history, family and local histories. Participants should bring pens, paper and audio recorder if you have one, or a smartphone.

Please note the workshop will not run if there is not sufficient interest. If the workshop is cancelled for this reason, you will be fully refunded.

Costs

$100 members of Oral History Queensland, $120 non-members. Find details of how to become a member of OHQ here: <http://www.ohq.org.au/membership/>

Content

The workshop will introduce participants to the basics of collecting oral histories and delivering oral history projects. It will provide an overview of an oral history project, ethics and permissions, an introduction to interview techniques and recording, file management and transcribing.

Catering

Light refreshments will be provided.
